GASTONE USIGLI CONDUCTOR AND MUSICAL DIRECTOR

DENNY-WATROUS MANAGEMENT

FOUNDER AND PRODUCING MANAGER

The 1955 Carmel Bach Festival is the outgrowth of twenty-three years of community music making. The year 1932 marked the beginning when Dene Denny and Hazel Watrous brought to Carmel the Neah-Kah-Nie String Quartet, with Michel Penha as its director and cellist. They presented the Quartet in chamber concerts, admitting season ticket holders to weekly open rehearsals. At the same time they organized an amateur orchestra, with Michel Penha as its conductor. The Carmel Music Society sponsored the enterprise and during the next year rendered generous financial support toward keeping Michel Penha as the Orchestra's leader. Many individuals, as well, contributed toward the support of the orchestra, an Association being formed for that purpose. For three years Michel Penha conducted the Orchestra, and the Denny-Watrous Management presented his Quartet in summer chamber concerts, featuring the Orchestra in special events. When his work called him away they engaged Ernst Bacon as conductor, and it was during the year that he was here that the Denny-Watrous Management, with his inspired conducting and co-operation, initiated the first Carmel Bach Festival in the summer of 1935.

Sascha Jacobinoff conducted the 1936 Festival, and Michel Penha returned to direct in 1937. 1938 marked the end of the early period, when Dene Denny and Hazel Watrous engaged the distinguished Gastone Usigli to conduct, the B Minor Mass being added and the programs taking a long step forward during that momentous summer. Mr. Usigli, to whose devotion and prodigious genius for orchestra and choral direction the Carmel Festival owes measureless debt, has been re-engaged every year since, taking the podium for the fifteenth consecutive time in this festival.

The Producing Management would express its deepest appreciation and thanks to the Bach Festival Committees, to the Soloists and Participants, to the Musician's Union of Monterey County, to the Pine Cone, the Spectator, the Monterey Peninsula Herald, Carmel Music Society, Graham Music Company, San Francisco Examiner, San Francisco Chronicle, Musical Courier, KXXL, KMBY, Musical America, the West Coast Press, Marvin H. Blake, Representative of the Rieger Organ, the Carmel Woman's Club, the Carmel School Board and School of Adult Education, to La Playa Hotel, Pine Inn, and the many friends of the Festival who have opened their homes to Festival Participants, to the members of the Festival Chorus and Orchestra, the staff and ushers, and to all who have labored and co-operated to make the 1955 Bach Festival a success.

DOMENICO SCARLATTI

SIXTY SONATAS PLAYED BY

RALPH KIRKPATRICK . . . Harpsichord

It is not necessary to dwell on Scarlatti's unique genius. Of the 500 odd sonatas he composed, none is repetitive. Constant flow and invention are ever present; the man was a magician.

Ralph Kirkpatrick is considered one of the world's great harpsichordists. He has received the Guggenheim fellowship for the study of seventeenth and eighteenth century methods of performance, and more recently a decoration in the Italian Order of Merit in recognition of his services to Scarlatti.

CHARLES DAVAL, WALTER LAURSEN, Trumpets.

JOHN FIELDS, Tympani.

The "Ceremonial Music" of Henry Purcell, as scored for two trumpets, tympani and organ will be heard for the first time in these concerts. The combination of the organ with other instruments was quite common during the Baroque Era. For especially festive occasions Purcell liked to enhance the music of the Chapel Royal and of Westminster Abbey, where he was organist, in that manner. The secular element is quite strong in Purcell's compositions for the Church — and accordingly, this "Ceremonial Music" represents in its five movements an early example of that type.

Spring is greeted by the festive song of birds . . . with sweet murmur the brooklet flows . . . the sky darkens . . . after the storm the birds resume their song . . . the shepherd sleeps in the blossoming meadow . . . nymphs dance to the festive tune of the bagpipe.

2. Summer. (Andantino mosso—Adagio—Presto)

The fierce sun causes men, animals and plants to languish . . . the cuckoo is heard, then the turtle-dove and goldfinch . . . a gentle zephyr blows but is soon challenged by the boreal wind . . . the shepherd senses a storm and is sad . . . from ominous skies rain falls on the cornfields.

3. Autumn. (Allegro—Adagio—Allegro)

With dance and song the farmer rejoices over his crops in the fragrant air . . . Bacchus lures him to sleep . . . at sunrise horns announce the departure of the hunters . . . they pursue the fleeing, weary animal to his death.

4. Winter. (Allegro non molto—Largo—Allegro)

To shiver in the cold wind, stamping one's feet . . . to find comfort near a fire while rain is pelting . . . to walk gingerly over the ice . . . to run, slip and fall . . . to hurry on ice that breaks . . . to be slashed by battling winds . . . this is winter, but it can bring joy.
